Hello everyone & Happy Valentine's Day! ♥

Luckily, we only had 4 weekends this month, so I didn't have to double people up too much, but we do have a LOT of snowbirds and are extremely short of help. Remember, if you are unable to keep the day you are scheduled for, please call a sub on the list of names that you have. A new list will be coming out next month, or stop by the Parish Office for a list before then.

Thank you for all that you do! 😊

Patty
